THURSDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 2, 1865.

New Northern Gold Fields.

There is no doubt that the great rush of prospectors the present spring will be towards the new mines discovered on the waters of the Columbia river last year. A gentleman just from California says the crowd who are waiting there to move as soon as spring opens, all name Kootenai as their destination, and there seems no doubt that extensive mines have been struck lately outside of the district known as the original Kootenai region. The whole mountain region to the north abounds in very rich and extensive gold mines extending far into British Columbia. A person who has just come down from there, speaks of an extensive mining district some 170 miles north of the old Kootenai district, where diggings are being worked equal in riches to the best known in Cariboo. These lie near the main Columbia, above Colville, and it is said a piece of gold weighing as much as six hundred dollars, has been taken out, with many of smaller value, and that one man has lately brought down forty pounds of gold taken from there. In view of the fact that so many are intending to visit that region in the spring, we will give some account of the present route and the facilities preparing to assist future travel. The road at present most traveled starts from Walla Walla, leaves Colville to the left, and probably is three hundred and fifty miles in reaching the Kootenai mines. The whole route is over a rolling country, well watered, abounding in good grasses, and with sufficient timber, and not through mountains at all. This route is long and tedious by land travel, but is far preferable to any other, although our neighbors of British Columbia would have the world believe that the best route lays through Frazer river via Cariboo, and over the terrible mountain ranges that separate the northern coast from the great inland basin to the east. All the facilities are also offered by this route that can be expected, as the people of Walla Walla and vicinity have always on hand thousands of Cayuses, and a traveler can procure an outfit at any of the towns on the Columbia with reliable certainty.

Capt. Len White, well known on the Oregon rivers as a most energetic steamboat man, has gone to Colville already, for the purpose of placing a good boat on the Columbia river above that point; and in this connection we will say a word about the navigation of the Columbia. Every one knows that at present we have steamboat and railroad connection all the year to Wallula and Umatilla, and it is possible to run still above Wallula some forty-five miles to White Bluffs, with a slight improvement of the river, at all seasons of the year.

From White Bluffs there is a good wagon route over a rolling country well grassed and watered, direct to Colville in 150 miles, while the river bends far to the North and traverses 300 miles between the two places. This distance and the existence of several rapids and falls in the river will make it unprofitable to ever undertake its navigation, but above Colville it can be navigated for two hundred and fifty miles, without a break. The Columbia there forms a succession of great lakes, offering every advantage to be made available to enterprise, and become a great route of travel. Capt. White is intending to build a steamer at Colville, to run on this unbroken water course, and it is hoped that by July he will be running; and that connecting with the road from White Bluffs, he will be able to transport prospecting parties far up the Columbia, to the very vicinity of the mines latest discovered. These mines are supposed to be on the Columbia, about where a line from Kootenai to Cariboo would strike that river, two hundred and fifty miles south east of Cariboo and one hundred and seventy miles from Kootenai.

Oregon is interested in these routes of travel not less than are the travelers themselves. The road all the way to Colville lies through our own territory. The mines offer for the present at least a profitable market for our surplus products, and travel benefits any country in many ways incidentally. Before closing this subject, we must say that mining is not the only inducement offered on the upper Columbia. The climate is said to be beautiful, and those desirous of permanent settlement can find a great deal of valuable unoccupied ground in the Colville valley, which is fifty miles long and ranging from a half mile to two miles wide. Already the settlers of Colville, principally composed of French and half-breeds, have begun to find a market, and a profitable one, too, for their surplus of vegetables, wheat and oats produced, and the promise for another year surpasses the profits for the last. There are other valleys besides Colville to be settled, and the future of the Upper Columbia will no doubt figure largely in the history of the Pacific coast.

GAZLAY'S PACIFIC MONTHLY.—We have received the first number of this magazine which, though published in New York, professes to be intended for readers in the Pacific States, and to advocate the interests of this coast. It would be a very good thing, with the interesting reading it contains, if actually produced in California, but coming from the States and illustrated by second hand engravings as it is said to be, it does not possess the attractions it might otherwise command for residents on this coast.

NEW FISHERIES.—The Legislature of Washington Territory, lately passed an act to give Messrs. Terry and Cushman the privilege to stock Lake Washington with alewives and shad. This lake covers an area of sixty square miles, and has an outlet of fifteen miles to salt water. Similar waters have been successfully stocked in Europe and at the East, and it is hoped the experiment will result in securing for this coast several of the best varieties of fish, not found in our waters.

"A PLAGUE O' BOTH YOUR HOUSES."—Brigham Young is no longer a Union man even by profession. If he were not so sanguinary in his style of denunciation, we might call him a neutral, but as it is, he appears little less than an exterminator. In a sermon preached on the 6th of November, according to the Union Vedette, he said:

"The North prays that their swords may strike into the heart of every rebel, and I say Amen; and the South prays that the North may be cut down on a thousand battle-fields, and again I say Amen."

The congregation responded "Amen," and as Brigham's utterances are considered inspired, they probably believe the war will have a Kilkenny-cat termination.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO JANUARY 31.

Secessionists in Paris.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—The Times' Paris letter says: The secessionist papers are trying to create an excitement over the Mexican resolutions of Winter Davis, but the late successes of the Federal arms have modified their tone. All show that they desire Seward to remain in office to carry out his policy of non-intervention and cooperation.

How our Prisoners are Treated.

FORTRESS MONROE, Jan. 28.—The weather is bitter cold at the front, and there is danger that James river will be closed by ice.

ROANOKE ISLAND, Jan. 26.—We learn that a large number of Union prisoners have been brought from Georgia to Salisbury, North Carolina, to prevent their capture by Sherman. It is said that the rebels are becoming more inhuman in their treatment of our men. Starvation is on the increase, the deaths amounting to upwards of fifty daily.

Singleton Returns from Richmond—Rebels not Ready for Peace.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—The World's special dispatch says: Notwithstanding the assertions of the Richmond papers to the contrary, Gen. Singleton did not leave that city until Saturday last, and arrived here to-day. This evening he was in consultation with the President. He mainly confirms Blair's story that the rebel leaders are not at present prepared to negotiate on the basis of submission to the Union.

Rumors were in circulation last night in and about the Evening Exchange, Room, that rebel peace commissioners were on their way to Washington.

From the Trans-Mississippi Department.

CAIRO, Jan. 30.—The Magnolia from New Orleans on the 24th reports all quiet along the river. A steamer had arrived at New Orleans from Mobile Bay, bringing a rumor of the evacuation of Mobile. The report was received from the flag-ship on the 20th.

A Natchez letter to the N. O. Delta has the following from the Trans-Mississippi Department:

The enemy are fortifying Grand Ecore, and have an entire division stationed there. One division of rebel cavalry has been sent to Texas with orders to be dismounted for infantry service. Kirby Smith's headquarters are still at Shreveport, La., but there is no considerable body of troops garrisoned there. The main body of Price's old army are reported at Fulton, on the upper Red river, near the borders of Indian Territory, suffering all the horrors of cold and nakedness, having come back from their recent campaign very poorly supplied with the necessaries they anticipated getting. Fagan's and Parson's brigades are stationed at Camden, Ark. They compose all the troops of Price's army that have returned to the place from where the Missouri expedition originally set out. Desertions are very frequent from their demoralized force.

The Memphis Bulletin says: The steamers Chippewa and Annie Jacobs, two of the fleet which went up the Arkansas river to Fort Smith, were captured and burned at White Oak, and one or two others were damaged, but very fortunately escaped.

Peace Commissioners Arrive at Annapolis.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 31.—A special dispatch to the Evening Telegraph from Washington says: It is known in the best informed circles that Commissioners from Jeff Davis, consisting of Vice President Stephens, R. M. T. Hunter and Gen. G. W. Smith, have arrived at Annapolis with full power to arrange a settlement of our difficulties. It is believed, from the understanding between Blair and Davis, that the terms will be entirely satisfactory to the Administration and Congress, and will chiefly consist of an amnesty to all offenders and the withdrawal of the Confiscation proclamation.

They are not Commissioners, but Come to Talk it Over.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 31.—The American, of this afternoon, publishes the following dispatch: Up to noon to-day we have no official confirmation of the rumor, though the assertion was varied this morning by the equally positive announcement that peace commissioners, consisting of Stephens, Hunter and Campbell, had arrived at City Point and were expected to reach Annapolis to-day. They are not spoken of as commissioners or representatives of the rebel Government, but as citizens representing the people, on their way to Washington to confer with Lincoln on the subject of peace, precisely in the same capacity that Blair visited Richmond.

The Story Proves to be a Myth.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—Nothing can be obtained confirming the report that rebel Peace Commissioners have arrived at City Point en route to Washington.

Miscellaneous.

DAVISVILLE, Jan. 30.—Capt. Bridgwater, with 70 or 80 Union troops, had a fight with a detachment of the 4th Missouri rebel cavalry four miles from Harrisburg yesterday, and killed four or five rebels. Several prisoners were taken. On Saturday Sue Munday's guerrilla band dashed into Bloomfield, surprised a party of 117 discharged soldiers, captured fourteen and killed them on the spot. The guerrillas alleged in justification that the soldiers had executed a guerrilla named Dudley a few days before.

CHICAGO, Jan. 31.—The Constitutional amendment abolishing slavery passed the House this afternoon by a vote of one hundred and sixteen to ninety-seven.

The Times' special dispatch says: The Ways and Means committee have received a report of a sub-committee on the tax bill. They have not materially altered the schedule of the old bill.

Stephen Foster has been sent to the county jail three months for gambling in default of not paying $300 fine.

An opposition ferry company between Oakland and San Francisco is rumored, fare to be five cents.

Judge Cope received a letter from Washington stating that the Supreme Court has decided the suit against the P. M. S. S. Company for half pilotage on their steamers entering and leaving this harbor. They had refused to employ pilots in conformity with the State laws, and the pilots sued them for half pilotage on each trip made in defiance of said law.

In the case of M. Castle vs. C. Strassman, plaintiff sold defendant goods to be paid for in gold. Defendant paid in greenbacks, and suit was brought to recover the difference between greenbacks and gold. Judge Pratt decided that plaintiff could have refused to accept greenbacks, but inasmuch as they were received, it was equivalent to waiving the specific contract.

It is rumored that Corbett, Postal Agent for this coast, has been superceded by G. C. Harrison.

DEATH OF ELIZA W. FARNHAM, [illegible] OF CALIFORNIA.—The New York Tribune of December [illegible] says:

The death of [illegible] the philanthropist and lecturess, Mrs. Eliza W. Farnham, took place [illegible] December 15th, at the residence of [illegible] in this city. Mrs. Farnham [illegible] county, [illegible] 1815. [illegible] subsequently [illegible] at the time [illegible] Farnham, [illegible] and writer of considerable [illegible]. After [illegible] a few years in the State of Illinois, she returned to New York, devoting herself to the [illegible] social reform. In [illegible] she was appointed matron of the female department of Sing Sing State Prison, in which office her [illegible] in behalf of the convicts were productive of the happiest effects. During her residence at Sing Sing she published her first work entitled Life in the Prairie Land, and [illegible] Sampson's [illegible]. In 1848, she was connected with the Institution for the Blind in Boston, and in 1849, followed her husband to California, where she remained until 1856. Upon her return to New York in that year she published an account of her experience in the Golden State, entitled California, In-doors and Out, and for the next two years devoted herself to the study of medicine. In 1859, she [illegible] emigrant women [illegible] to the West and to California. The same year she published an autobiographical sketch, entitled My Early Days. The work by which Mrs. Farnham will be best remembered, and to the preparation of which she had devoted her [illegible] for twenty years, entitled The [illegible], was published about a year since, and attracted not a little attention by the originality of [illegible] it shows, and the vigorousness with which they were maintained. She was a remarkable woman, naturally imbued with the spirit of self devotion, with strong faith in the lofty destinies of humanity, and cherished an ardent zeal for whatever promised to advance its progress and elevation.—N. Y. [illegible]

SHERMAN'S MARCH.—Perhaps I shall fail to convey a correct impression of the opinion of leading men here concerning Sherman's triumphal march, did I not say that his praises are upon every lip, and that accomplished military critics pronounce his achievement one of the greatest military achievements in history. While to Grant belongs the honor of conceiving the bold plan of which Sherman's movement was a part, to Sherman belongs the credit of executing his share in such a manner as to command the admiration and wonder of the world. From late arrivals we learn that the march through the enemy's country was almost [illegible], and while our cavalry hanging like a cloud on both sides of the column, effectually concealed the main army and its direction, the progress of the vast body of infantry was unimpeded from first to last; subsisting on the fat things of the country, never so much as losing a wagon, sweeping up horses, mules, negroes, supplies, the army now emerges from its cloud of cavalry, and in better condition than ever before, sits leisurely down before Savannah, surrounding that doomed city on every side. No wonder that Sherman writes to the War Department that he and his men are anxious to go into the Carolinas, where he will go shortly unless he has contrary orders. Sherman has done splendidly, but his work has only just begun.—Cor. Sac. Union.

[illegible] —We were shown yesterday a [illegible] gold washed from [illegible] gravel found [illegible] bed of a creek near the [illegible] of [illegible] Columbia river, which [illegible] the [illegible] does exist there, [illegible] quantities [illegible] say, however, that [illegible] prospect [illegible] The gold shown us was not [illegible] that prospectors [illegible] The lay of the [illegible] are quite as favorable [illegible] as some parts of the [illegible] producing their thousands [illegible]

[illegible] —The Willamette Theatre has [illegible] a valuable addition to the company [illegible] Mr. & Mrs. Irwin, who have [illegible] where they have filled [illegible] engagement. We saw him a few [illegible] Black Barber," in which [illegible] made [illegible] to the pleasure of the [illegible] Mrs. Irwin we are told [illegible] and as we understand it is [illegible] heavy tragedy, and give Portland [illegible] comedy and [illegible] prophesy that the Theatre will be well patronized during the engagement of the Irwins, since their presence with the old company enables [illegible] to please the [illegible]

[illegible] AND ELSEWHERE.—A large number of [illegible] are [illegible] in this city from Victoria [illegible] by the last steamship, and others are [illegible] daily by the way of Puget Sound, bound [illegible] and other gold regions east of [illegible] an intelligent miner, who [illegible] "Lillcat" by the newspaper reports from that quarter, we were assured that [illegible] had been spelled incorrectly by them [illegible] should have been [illegible] as it would be [illegible] "drawing blood from a stone," to find gold in sufficient quantities to buy grub, anywhere about there. There are some who have previously been to the Boise country, among these men, and we [illegible] the miner is the best [illegible] we have to support the claims of our country, especially when he does so voluntarily.

[illegible] —The steamer Vancouver made her usual round to Vancouver yesterday, arriving at her wharf last evening. The ice in the Columbia was found to be well broken up, and floating in immense quantities, so thick and heavy however, that the O. S. N. Company yet deem it unsafe to dispatch a steamer for the Cascades. The steamer Wilson G. Hunt will possibly go forward on Saturday, upon the arrival of the ocean steamer from California.

A GOOD MONTH'S WORK.—Sheriff Stitzel yesterday turned over to the County of Multnomah the tax collected during the month of January, which amounted to the snug sum of $46,000 in gold and silver coin. This sum applies on the State and county tax, and it is quite commendable to the credit of our citizens who have paid it, and to our diligent Sheriff, whose promptness in attending to the demands of his office is highly appreciated. About $20,000 is yet to be collected and paid into the treasury.

REVENUE.—Mr. Frazar, United States Assessor, gives us a report of the assessments of the State of Oregon, under the Internal Revenue law, for six months ending December 31st, 1864, including the special income, which amounts to an aggregate of $127,704 [illegible]. The Assessor gives notice in another column, that the law respecting stamps, which provides for penalties for all violations, must be more closely observed.

NEW BOOKS.—The following "new books" lately "printed" by Messrs. A. G. Walling & Co., and bound by Mr. Seibert, in extra Russian, spring-back style, for use by the Secretary of State, were forwarded yesterday: Record of the State Department; Register of County Bonds; Records of the Treasury Department. We take pleasure in "publishing" the fact that Portland is enabled to turn out such a superior quality of work.

ERRATUM.—The dispatch yesterday alluding to the foot race of M. J. Lewis, was placed under the wrong heading. It came by northern telegraph, and should have borne the date "Seattle," that being the place where the race was run. In writing to a friend, a few days previous, the conditions of the match were stated, and Lewis adds: "If I win I will telegraph to you—if I lose, I won't have money enough to do so!" The dispatch came.

THE VANCOUVER FOR SALE.—By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that the steamer Vancouver, lately the regular packet to the town of that name from this city, is offered for sale. This steamer was built at Milwaukie about the year 1857, by her present owner, Capt. Turnbull, and is yet a very fine little side wheel craft. The addition of a little paint, and a few needed repairs, would make her a favorite craft, for service in a light trade, for a number of years to come.

THE REASON WHY.—A friend relates an excuse made by the father of two or three sons who wished to enter the cavalry service, that prevented their enlistment. The boys were anxious to serve their country, but listened to the arguments of the father and abandoned the prospect. The principal point in the old man's pleading was that: "[illegible] so depreciated, they offer no inducement."

THE INSANE ASYLUM.—Mrs. Weeks, formerly matron of the Taunton Insane Asylum, of Massachusetts, arrived in Portland on Tuesday last, to assume the same position at the Asylum in East Portland. Mr. Kenworthy, former Superintendent of the Stockton Asylum, of California, also arrived by the steamer of Tuesday, and will take charge as Principal. The proprietors, Messrs. Hawthorne & Loryea, are determined that the institution shall enjoy the best management possible.

EDINBURGH PAPERS.—We have the Edinburg, Scotland, Daily Review and the North Briton, of November 26th and 27th, by favor of Mr. Harry [illegible]. The oddity of the address attracted our attention, being to the care of one of our mercantile firms, who are [illegible] as follows: "Warehousemen, Portland, Oregon, San Francisco, S. America."

POLICE COURT.—The following business was disposed of in Recorder's Court, yesterday, before Judge McC[illegible] Isaac Henchman, defendant discharged. The following violators of peace and quiet, were fined in proportion to their acts:—Peter Beyk[illegible] $20 and costs, paid; Geo. Smith, $5 and costs, paid; Indian Jack, a poor aboriginal, unable to fork over, committed for thirty days.

RELEASED.—A. B. Wyland was yesterday released from the County Jail, whither he had been consigned by a sentence of Recorder's Court, for larceny performed a short time since. His penalty was [illegible] Eleven persons are [illegible] remaining in durance vile.

PATTERNS ARRIVED.—The Oregon Iron Works in this city are about to commence the manufacture of W[illegible] & Marshall's patent Amalgamating pans, and have received the patterns from San Francisco, to begin the work with.

REMOVED.—G. B. Gray, Esq., has removed his office for the dispensation of Justice one block north of the old office, on the East side of Front Street, nearly opposite the Mansion House.

Vig. H. & L. Co. No. 1.—Special Meeting this (Thursday) evening at 7 o'clock, for election of [illegible] By order of the President. [illegible] COHEN, Sec'y.

Multnomah, No. 2.—Regular Monthly Meeting [illegible] Thursday evening at 7 o'clock. Annual election of officers. [illegible] LEONARD, Sec'y.

A Greenback Case!

HAVING BEEN COMPELLED TO ACCEPT OF Legal Tender Notes at par since the 17th day of December, 1862, for the rent of my handsome Brick Store, corner of Morrison and Front streets, I feel compelled to announce for the benefit of the public at large, that

Jacob Mayer

Leased the building of me on the 17th day of February, 1862, for a term of years, at which time there was no such currency in vogue, and it was understood the terms were CASH. Since the date above stated I have received the depreciated currency regularly, under protest for the rent of the

CITY OF PARIS STORE,

Making less than two-fifths of the real amount said Mayer was to pay. He has secured the building at very advantageous rates, and were he now to comply with his contract, and pay in COIN, would be getting the best bargain in the city. I make this statement to show the public what kind of a man he must be to take such undue advantage of the times to convert a few dollars to himself by LEGAL SWINDLING. The public can readily see what it costs to have such tenants. G. W. VAUGHN.

EUGENE CITY, Oregon, Jan. 26th, 1865.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

Your issue of the 24th inst., containing "Comus," arrived this morning, which communication, with your remarks on "Financiering," created quite a rustling among the "queer combination." As all that can be ascertained from "Comus" about the real state of the tax question in this county, and the "queer combination" which tendered greenbacks and applied for the writ of mandamus, is to be inferred, I will intrude upon your patience for a few moments and explain:

First, John Whiteaker, "Ex Governor," heads the bright galaxy. Everybody knows "John." Then comes John E. [illegible], one of the real simon pure unterrified, who comes to town regularly once a week, and after taking a good supply of Democratic lightning, swears he is a K. of the G. C., and shouts for Jeff. Davis and the Southern Confederacy. And then comes A. J. Babb, Esq., a would-be lawyer of this town. He is a man of great irritability of temper, and of much "ponderosity," but is particularly noted for his "miscellaneous character."

Since the writ has been issued, Babb has been preparing himself for a big speech before his Honor, and the following scrap as caught by an ear witness to one of his rehearsals may give you a very correct idea of the tenor—to wit:

"The world moves. Truly this is an age of monstrosities, and with each rotundant sweep of this terraqueous sphere, we are brought nearer and nearer to the grand climaxtous of the endless cycles of the equestrian effulgency of parricidical glory." (Repeat once.)

Those named are all of the pure Democracy; have always been Democrats; expect to live Democrats, and when they die go with all true Democrats to Jeff. Davis. It is needless for me to say that every one of them have often, with true Democratic bravery, asserted that greenbacks were good for nothing; that they would not carry one about their person, lest they might be taken for one of Old Abe's men; that "hard currency" was still the watch-word of the Democracy, and they were going to stick to the faith. Verily "consistency thou art a jewel!"

The other part of the "queer combination" consists of S. B. Cranston, State Senator from this county, who has really done hard work in the cause—worked side by side, and shoulder to shoulder with the Democracy in their efforts to destroy the Union party, and has fully earned the position of wheel horse. I understand some of the people in his precinct are already canvassing his claims to the gubernatorial chair, after the expiration of Gov. Gibbs' term. Surely Sam. is a lucky dog!

Then comes W. M. Mitchell, our regular standing candidate for any office, but who unfortunately has not appreciating friends enough to assist him to place. Mitchell is not so much too blame for his position in the "queer combination," as every one knows that repeated disappointment in office-seeking make the best of men "sore-headed." Besides, some unfortunate hombre, whom he calls a "thief," "robber," "swindler," &c., paid him greenbacks at par, and he reads the Golden Rule thus: "Do unto others as they do unto you." Go in, Mitchell, you are on the top wave, now!

There are two other Union men in the "queer combination," whose names I will not now mention, as they are like poor Tray. I will simply say that they are good men, and are generally found in better company. Then comes the mild, gentle "Comus," who "thinks," and "understands," &c., but is personally perfectly oblivious of the whole transaction. No one but "Comus" could have written a letter of that kind, after doing all the pretty work and all the engineering for the whole of the "queer combination." No one but "Comus" could be a candidate on the Copperhead ticket for , and be beslobbered all over with the filth of O'Dennis' slimy words, and at the same time and since be the correspondent of a true Union paper. Truly "this is an age of monstrosities." Your truly, VINDEX.

Woolen Factory in Clark County, W. T.

At a meeting held by the citizens of Clark county, pursuant to notice at the court house in Vancouver, on Saturday, January 28th, 1865, for the purpose of taking the initiatory steps towards the erection of a woolen factory in Clark county, the following proceedings were had, to wit:

The meeting was called to order by Hon. James E. Wyche, and on motion, Levi Farnsworth, Esq., was elected Chairman, and H. G. Struve, Sec'y.

The object of the meeting having been stated and its merits discussed by Messrs. Barber, Brown, Maxon, Love, Wyche, Douthit and others, the following Committees were appointed:

Committee on Statistics and Information—M. L. Barber, J. E. Wyche, S. W. Brown.

Committee to Select Mill Site—L. Farnsworth, S. R. Whipple, S. Barber.

Committee on Subscription (one from each precinct in the county)—J. F. Smith, S. D. Maxon, C. H. Reed, C. Laucaster, Levi Douthit, John H. Timmons, Louis Van Vleet and S. M. Hamilton, of Cascades precinct.

The above named committees were requested to make a full report of their acts and doings at the next meeting, to be held at the same place on the third Monday in March next, and the Secretary was instructed to inform the absent members on committees of their appointments, and furnish them with the proceedings of this meeting, together with other information necessary to enable them to discharge their duties.

On motion, a committee consisting of H. G. Struve, L. Holmes and M. L. Barber, was appointed to prepare a code of By-Laws and submit them to the next regular meeting.

On motion, it was resolved that the publisher of the OREGONIAN be requested to publish the proceedings of this meeting.

The meeting then stood adjourned.

LEVI FARNSWORTH, Chairman.
H. G. STRUVE, Sec'y.

GEN. ROSECRANS THROWS HIMSELF ON HIS RECORD.—Gen. Rosecrans has undertaken to wipe out all scores against the newspapers in a long communication to the Cincinnati Commercial. He makes an unqualified denial of all the charges made against him in the public prints, and says that he refrained from responding to charges of a like nature, made last year, from a sense of duty to the country, but now he has come to the conclusion that for the same reason it is his duty to disabuse the public mind in reference to the charges of his slanderers. He denies that he disobeyed the orders of the President, or any other superior officer; that he never used opium in any form but as a medicine, and that but rarely; that he has been addicted to intemperance, or that he was subjected to "disabling mental disease." He charges the paternity of the slanders upon "a former attachee of the Chicago Tribune office, who had some position in the office of one of the Assistant Secretaries of War, and that the same fellow afterward wrote and published a lying article in the Washington Star to do away with the bad effect of 'Agate's' 'authentic statement,' which was not sufficiently 'down on Rosecrans' to suit his enemies, by stating it is 'now pretty well ascertained that authentic document was prepared in Cincinnati.'" The General says that doubtless the Government had reasons for relieving him of the command of the Department of the Missouri but throws himself upon his record.

AN INFERNAL "SHELL" MACHINE.—A very suspicious box was left at a railroad office in Cincinnati last November, and was a source of terror to all hands for four weeks; at the end of which time the Police were sent for, and the box was carefully taken to an upper window and thrown to the ground. The explosion which followed showed that the "infernal machine" had been packed full of Baltimore oysters.

HOW MAX. PROPOSES TO WORK THE MINES OF SONORA.—A Paris letter in the Independance Belge states that an arrangement has been come to with the Emperor Maximilian, for the joint working of the mines in Sonora by France and Mexico. M. Bonneford, Inspector of Finance, who has been appointed to go to Mexico, had an audience of the Emperor Napoleon, Dec. 1st, at Compiegne, on the subject.

MAMMA REBUKED.—"How awkward you are," said the lady. "I do not hold my head down; do not turn in my toes as I walk; I do not lean my elbows on the table."

"I beg your pardon, mamma," said the child, who was really a well-behaved little creature, "but are you not rather fond of praising yourself?"—Memoirs of Lucy Aiken.

Johnny reb was looking at one of our guns, and remarked that he "didn't think the Yanks would use them guns much longer." "Why not?" inquired one of the Feds. "Because" said he "the Confederacy is getting so narrow that you'll fire clear over it and hit your men on the other side."

A NOVEL PLEA.—A Judge relates the following incident that occurred in his practice: He was trying a petty case, in which one of the parties was not able to pay counsel fees, and undertook to plead his own cause. But he found, in the course of the trial, that the keen and adroit attorney who managed the case for the other party was too much for him in legal strategy, evidently making the worse appear the better cause. The poor man Mr. A. was in a state of mind bordering on desperation, when the opposing counsel closed his plea, and the case was about to be submitted to the justice for decision. "May it please your honor," said the man "may I pray?" The judge was taken somewhat by surprise, and could only say that he saw no objection. Whereupon Mr. A. went down upon his knees and made a fervent prayer, in which he laid the merits of his case before the Lord in a very clear and methodical statement of all the particulars, pleading that right and justice might prevail. "O Lord, thou knowest that this lawyer has misrepresented the facts, and thou knowest that it is so and so"—to the end of the chapter. Arguments which he could not present in logical array to the understanding of men, he had no difficulty in addressing to the Lord, being evidently better versed in praying than pettifogging. When he rose from his knees, Esquire W., the opposing counsel, very much exasperated by the turn which the case had taken, said: "Mr. Justice, does not the closing argument belong to me?" To which the judge replied: "You can close with prayer, if you please." Esquire W. was in the habit of praying at home, but not seeing the propriety of connecting his prayer with his practice, wisely forbore, leaving poor Mr. A. to win his case, as he did, by this novel mode of presenting it.

OBSEQUIES OF MINISTER DAYTON—RESPECT TO HIS MEMORY IN FRANCE AND ENGLAND.—The obsequies of the late U. S. Minister Dayton took place on the 6th of December in the American church at Paris. The Rev. Dr. Sutherland performed the religious services. A detachment of troops escorted the remains as a guard of honor. The Rue de Berri was lined with carriages. The Emperor was represented by Baron de [illegible], and Prince Jerome by Gen. Francemière. The French Foreign Minister, M. Drouyn d'Lhuys, and the whole diplomatic body were in attendance, and the church was crowded in every part. Dr. Sutherland delivered a discourse eulogistic of the deceased, and said the cordiality which exists between France and America is, in a great measure, owing to his thorough uprightness and manliness, and his courteous and conciliatory manners. Mr. Dayton's only son was chief mourner, and he was supported by Mr. Pennington, Secretary of Legation, Mr. Bigelow, United States Consul, and Mr. Aspinwall, of New York. Most of the Americans in Paris were present, including many Southerners. The body would remain in church until the 10th of December, and then be sent to Havre to be embarked for New York. The French journals, even those most hostile to the Northern cause, pay warm tributes to the memory of Mr. Dayton.

Details of Mr. Dayton's death state that he was visiting an American lady at the Hotel du Louvre, when he was seized with illness. He fell senseless, was conveyed to his residence and expired before he could be carried upstairs. The Paris correspondent of the London Times pays a warm tribute to Mr. Dayton, whose death caused sincere regret. "He was courteous to all and universally respected."

A FREAK OF COMMODORE VANDERBILT'S—PENALTY FOR TOWING A DISTRESS VESSEL.—A story is told on the streets which bears rather hard upon Mr. Cornelius Vanderbilt. It will be recollected that, on her recent trip from Aspinwall, the North Star put into Port Royal with her convoy, the gunboat Augusta, in tow, the gunboat having been disabled in a storm. For this act of simple duty to his convoy, Capt. Jones of the North Star has, it is said, been discharged, and is given to understand that he can have no more employ on the Aspinwall line. It is understood that the special reason given for this summary dismissal of an able and faithful officer is, that in consequence of his prolonged voyage he had consumed more of the Company's coal than would have been necessary had he left his distressed convoy in the lurch and steered straight for New York. It was simply that, and nothing more. The convenience or comfort of passengers, or the anxiety over their prolonged voyage of friends and relatives at home, was of course no sort of consequence. It was simply coal—coal—coal. People here are wondering whether the Commodore will send a bill to Government for towage.

What makes the dismissal of Capt. Jones more flagrant in its injustice, is the fact asserted by his friends that he had special orders from the Company not to leave Aspinwall without his convoy, and on no account, during the voyage, was he to lose sight of her.—N. Y. Cor. Bulletin.

CALIFORNIA TREASURE AND THE PIRATES.—Shippers of treasure to the East from California are resting upon the supposition that all the treasure ships between Aspinwall and New York, are sure to be convoyed by a United States gunboat, and thus safe from piratical seizure. This is a delusion. I learn from an unmistakable source that D. B. Allen, manager of the line at New York, (C. Vanderbilt's son-in-law,) has positively instructed his captains never to wait at Aspinwall for convoy; if said convoy is not ready to proceed to sea as soon as the passengers and specie are on board. To give emphasis to this order, Capt. A. G. Jones of the North Star, has been dismissed the company's service for waiting over one night for his convoy on his last trip from Aspinwall. As the United States vessels employed as convoys are not efficient sailers, it must frequently happen that they are not ready for sea exactly in time; and shippers of treasure and underwriters are entitled to know the risk they must assume in sending bullion to New York. It is a fraud upon them to advertise that the ships at the Atlantic end of the route are convoyed, and then order their captains not to wait for convoy on penalty of dismissal.—Cor. S. F. Bulletin.

THE PRINTERS ESCAPING THE REBEL CONFEDERACY—TRIAL OF FIVE TYPOS FOR DESERTION.—The following is from the Richmond Whig, 20th December:

The three printers who were caught whilst attempting to escape to the Yankees are still being tried by Military Court-martial, which sits in the State Court-House. The two [illegible], refugees from the Richmond Dispatch office, were being tried yesterday. Though exempt, by act of Congress, from military service, and not belonging to any regular military organization, they are being tried for desertion, and if convicted, will be shot—by the Printers' Guard. If attempting to go to the enemy is desertion, they are guilty by their own confession, and must be convicted. There is a popular fallacy, which is in a fair way to be exploded by this trial, that desertion is an offence that can only be committed by persons belonging to the land or naval service.

RECOGNITION OF THE VALOR OF A BOY VOLUNTEER.—The Ohio military agent (Wetmore) at Washington presented, lately, Nathaniel McLean Gwynne, Company H, Eighteenth Ohio Cavalry, a lad of fifteen years, to the Secretary of War. The boy distinguished himself at the battle of the "Crater," before Petersburg. He was counseled by his officers, before the fight, not to go in, as he had not been mustered; [illegible] was obliged to do so. He insistently applied: "[illegible] family are of better stock than that [illegible] had to linger in the rear." He went into the desperate charge which soon followed. A piece of shell crushed his left arm, which had to be amputated soon after. After a few pleasant words to the lad, the Secretary ordered a medal to be prepared for him.

MATTERS IN CONGRESS—A MINING BUREAU.—Mr. Cole of California has prepared a bill establishing a Mining Bureau in the Government, with a Commissioner and the necessary mineralogists and clerks to collect and diffuse useful information on the subject of mining in the United States. His purpose is to secure its consideration, if possible, by a select committee. [illegible] necessary to proceed with caution in the matter, as members of Congress who are disposed to the imposition of an enormous tax upon gold and silver mines manifest a disposition to take advantage of every occasion when the subject of mining is mentioned in any way to spring the scheme.—*S. From the army hospital—the bloody battlefield—the mansion of the rich, and humble abode of the poor—from the office and the sacred desk—from the mountain tops, distant valleys, and far-off islands of the ocean—from every nook and corner of the civilized world—is pouring in the evidence of the astonishing effects of DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS. Thousands and thousands of letters like the following may be seen at our office:

REEDSVILLE, WIS., Sept. 15, 1864.

[illegible] I have been in the army hospitals for fourteen months—speechless and nearly dead. At Alton, Ill., they gave me a bottle of Plantation Bitters. * * Three bottles restored my speech and cured me. * * C. A. FLAUTE.

[illegible] One young man who had been sick and not out of the house for two years with Scrofula and Erysipelas, after paying the doctors over $500 without benefit, has been cured by two bottles of your Bitters. EDWARD WOCNALL.

The following is from the manager of the Union Home School for the Children of Volunteers:

HAVEMEYER MANSION, FIFTY-SEVENTH ST., New York, August 1, 1863.

DR. DRAKE: Your wonderful Plantation Bitters have been given to some of our little children suffering from weakness and weak lungs, with most happy effect. One little girl in particular, with pains in her head, loss of appetite, and daily wasting consumption, on whom all medical skill had been exhausted, has been entirely restored. We commenced with but a teaspoonful of Bitters a day. Her appetite and strength rapidly increased, and she is now well. Respectfully, MRS. O. M. DEVOE.

[illegible] I owe much to you, for I verily believe the Plantation Bitters have saved my life. REV. W. H. WAGGONER, Madrid, N. Y.

PERUVIAN SYRUP,

OR PROTECTED

Solution of Protoxide of Iron,

Has been used with Great Success in Curing

DYSPEPSIA,

Affections of the Liver, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Bronchitis and Consumptive Tendencies, Disordered State of the Blood, Female Complaints, Chronic Diarrhœa, Boils, Scurvy, the Prostrating effects of Lead or Mercury,

GENERAL DEBILITY,

and all Diseases which require a

Tonic and Alterative Medicine.

THE PROOFS OF ITS EFFICACY ARE SO NUMERous, so well authenticated, and of such peculiar character, that sufferers cannot reasonably hesitate to receive the proffered aid.

The class of diseases for which the Syrup provides a cure, is precisely that which has so often baffled the highest order of medical skill. The facts are tangible, the witnesses accessible, and the safety and efficacy of the Syrup incontrovertible.

From well-known Citizens of Boston.

The undersigned having experienced the beneficial effects of the "Peruvian Syrup," do not hesitate to recommend it to the attention of the public.

REV. JOHN PIERPONT, THOMAS A. DEXTER, S. H. KENDALL, M. D., SAMUEL MAY, THOMAS C. AMORY, PETER HARVEY, JAMES C. DUNN, REV. THOS. WHITTEMORE.

Certificate of Dr. Hayes.

It is well known that the medical effects of Protoxide of Iron are lost by even a very brief exposure to air, and that to maintain a solution of Protoxide of Iron, without further oxidation, has been deemed impossible.

In the Peruvian Syrup, this desirable point is attained by COMBINATION IN A WAY BEFORE UNKNOWN; and this solution may replace all the proto-carbonates, citrates and tartrates, of the Materia Medica. A. A. HAYES, M. D., Assayer to the State of Massachusetts.

IODINE WATER.

IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DIScovery of modern chemistry, and it is impossible to overestimate its influence as a remedial agent. Iodine has been considered the most useful article in Materia Medica, and many of the most scientific and practical chemists and physicians have investigated its effects upon the human system. It is found upon the

HEART,
LIVER, KIDNEYS,
DIGESTIVE ORGANS and GLANDULAR SYSTEM, and to have great control over

SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the zeal and ability which have been devoted to its investigation, it remained almost useless, until Dr. Henry Anders, a Physician and Chemist of New York, after years of patient labor and experiment, discovered a chemical process which enabled him to dissolve without a solvent. This, considered impossible by the scientific world, is attested by certificates of analysis from Dr. J. R. Chilton of this city, and Prof. Booth, U. S. Mint, Philadelphia. The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated by the Faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals, and its use recommended to practitioners. (See "American Medical Monthly," July 6, 1856, page 76.)

PURE IODINE IN PURE WATER,

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its manifold forms, Consumption, Cancer, Heart, Liver and Kidney Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, etc.

AS A TONIC

Its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs, and increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient receives flesh, strength and color; hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

Full directions accompany each bottle.

Sold by all Druggists. Price, $1 per bottle. Prepared by Dr. H. Anders & Co., Physicians and Chemists, New York.

ALLEN'S

LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION. IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it, if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.
